Foreword

We, fledglings flutter away from a glorious never to be forgotten nest, into the space age of the 70's.
From where living was being "PEOPLE"
and doing exciting things.
We look back reluctantly at a vibrant school year.
We pass, once more those cloister walls of melted white and granite embossed with the W of our name.
These matronly doors that opened so graciously to our needs open now on our last march.
We march again down those halls, halls that lead to the ever dependable givers of knowledge and seem to expand to the edges of
Our day of outer space.
We leave never to seek this refuge of strength and information with the sound of our alma mater drifting in the back-ground.
We as "PEOPLE" of '70 will forever hear the ringing of the bells that came so swiftly ending again and again another opportunity to grow.

When you're sending People who teach,
Give us People who gently reach
Far beyond the classroom chatter
Far beyond the subject matter;
People who see the pupil whole
People who stimulate his soul.

People who see beyond their earning,
People who see beyond their learning
See into life's real essentials
See the pupil's great potentials
Dormant now but still to be Brought up to reality.

Big people

BIG PEOPLE WHO HELP TO MAKE WALKER A BIG SCHOOL. Mr. Sidney S. Parker, our Principal, holds a conference with his Assistants to discuss various problems as related to the running of our school. The Assistants are Miss Ransome, Mr. Segar and Mr. Gardner. These people have served Walker well through the years. Their dedicated spirit and efficient administration lend inspiration to all who come under their influence. They seem to understand the problems of youth, and they spare no efforts in initiating activities that tend to make Walker a big school.

Principals are people

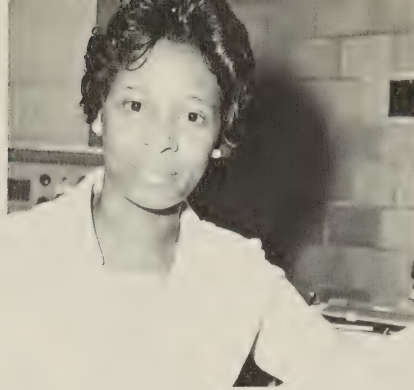

Miss Ransome, Assistant Principal, checks the list of those students leaving early. Class cutters "Beware!"

Arthur L. Gardner
Administrative Assistant to the Principal
Mr. Gardner makes notes as he listens to a student's "tale" of woe.

Mr. W. Segar, Assistant Principal, shows signs of stress after long hours of concentration on many school problems.

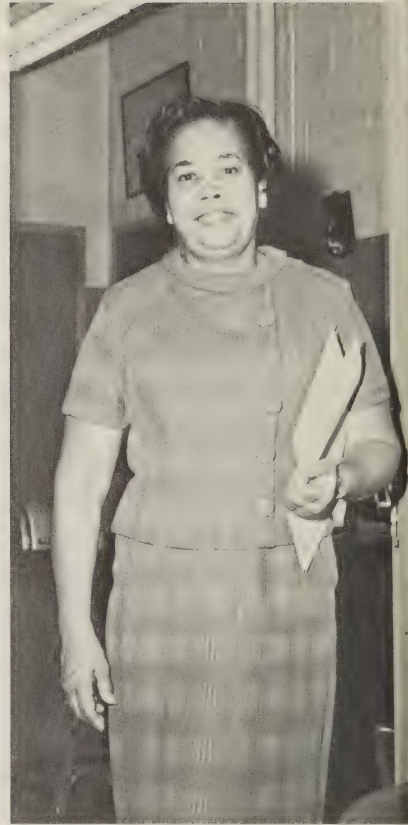

Mrs. Edith W. Pace, School Secretary

Secretaries & Aides are people, too.

Mrs. Minnie Parson, Secretary in the Guidance Department

Mrs. Ada Pannell, Senior Secretary

Miss Brenda Archer,

The Foreign Language Department offers the students opportunities to acquire understanding and skills in the areas of oral comprehension and proper pronunciation of words. Selective courses are offered in French, Latin, German, Spanish and Russian and are chosen by the students to suit their own individual interests. Foreign language provides a means of communication among the peoples of the world.

Mrs. Maxine L. Black feels that French is most important to all peoples.

Mrs. Audrey L. Gaines seems surprised that test records are not done in French.

Mrs. Trella Collins has a smile with a French accent.

"Now that is not as funny as it sounds," says Mrs. Emma Parcell our Spanish teacher.

A Spanish smile, a Spanish look help to make learning a language easy with Mrs. Evelyn Page as teacher and Department Head.

In addition to offering regular courses in history, the History Department lists a basal and honors curricula. The guiding philosophy of the department seems to be expressed in terms of a statement that is so often expressed by Mr. John Williams — "If the world is to be saved, it must be saved through Social Studies."

Students enrolled in history courses are active in community activities, such as participating in United Nations Contest, Negro History programs, and voting poll duties during state and national elections.

Industrial education &

The basic purpose of our Industrial Education and Practical Arts department is to provide offerings for those students who are not college bound. In this highly industrialized society it is very important that schools give students opportunities to acquire knowledge and skills that will enable them to meet the economic and social problems of our times.

The music department presented as its spring musical production "West Side Story," music by Leonard Bernstein, lyrics by Stephen Sandheim. "West Side Story" portrays rivalry between two vicious gangs. Murders and death result, but who is to blame? Most of all, love is found and two people join together to help formulate a musical that the students of Maggie Walker, as well as the citizens of our city, will never forget. This is said to be the crowning glory of all of the music department productions. The production was presented in April, in the School Auditorium.

SCULPTURE ATTRACTS ATTENTION. This display was one of the most popular in the show. The show was viewed by students, teachers, parents, and art interested persons in the community. Each year the Art department and the Industrial Education and Practical Arts department jointly sponsor a show when the projects of students are put on display.

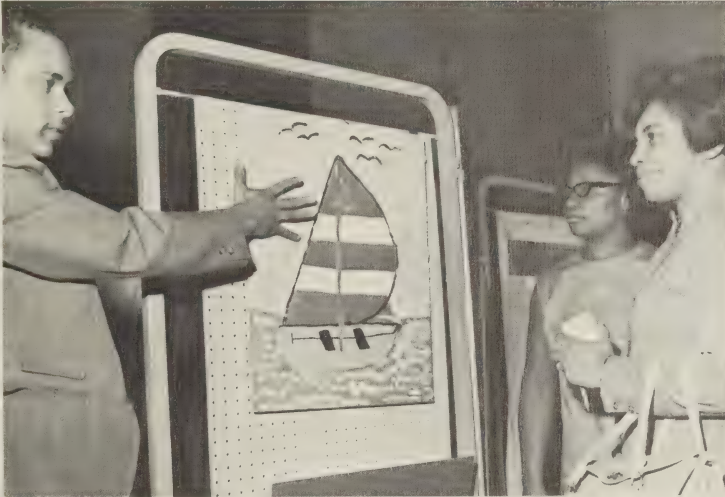

PARENTS VIEW ART EXHIBITS. Parents, in large numbers turned out to view the art displays. Many parents came because of their interest in their child's work of arts. Others were just art lovers. These parents are viewing and discussing the three paintings shown here.

social happenings of the school year. The special attractions of the evening include the Grand March and the crowning of the Queen.

Culture and grace

PEOPLE DESIRE SOCIAL ACHIEVEMENTS. Most people enjoy social activities. Entertainment, recreation, balls, and dress are important factors in the development of young people. School activities are so designed as to impart knowledge and acquire skills in social graces and poise. Rhonda Johnson and 2nd. Lt. Raymond Walker are congratulated for their presentation in this area.

LAYOUT A YEARBOOK FUNDAMENTAL

These are the yearbook layout "experts." They are aware of the importance of good layout to a superb yearbook. Christopher Chester and Majorie Rivers discuss details of a layout spread while Craig Mills and Dorothy Winston get needed information over the telephone.

EDITORIAL STAFF HOLDS EXECUTIVE SESSION:

A tremendous amount of planning goes in the publication of a yearbook. Planning must be accurate so that all details, appointments and deadlines must meet. The Editor-in-Chief Harry Bryce (extreme right) called this meeting. Those in attendance were (standing) Marjorie Rivers, FEATURE WRITER; Gloria Graham, Assis. Secretary; Anthony Bolling, Ass. Business Manager; Christopher Chester, Business Manager; Sarah Lacy, Secretary; Craig Mills, Assis. Editor-in-Chief; and Raymond Bowser, SPORTS EDITOR.

Young publishers

STUDENTS HAVE VOICE IN YEARBOOK PUBLICATION

All students may be involved in publishing our yearbook. Each homeroom sends a representative to the yearbook staff meetings. At these meetings the representatives make decisions and engage in duties related to the yearbook, and report back to classmates in each homeroom. This a section of the Homeroom Representative Staff. There are: Raymond Bowser, Weldon Edwards, Gwendolyn Watts, William Jackson, Sandra Jones, Mamie Nunery, Ellen Johnson, Sarah Lacy, Edna Parker, Delores Lacy, Barbara Tune, Jacob Langhorne, Clarette Booker, Marjorie Rivers. (sitting) Cluverius Jenkins, Sarah James, Valerie Branch, Annie Rowe, Ida Ruffin, Barbara Farmer, Carolyn Walker, Craig Mills, and Harry Bryce.

STAFF SETS BUDGET — The staff is fully aware of the importance of a workable budget. The yearbook budget must be concerned with budgeting time and money. Such are the responsibilities of the Yearbook Budget Committee. The members are: Annie Rowe, Barbara Tune, Craig Mills, and Harry Bryce, ex officio. Seated are: Edna Parker, Gwendolyn Watts, Sarah Lacy and Valerie Branch.

Second Runner-Up: Beverly Lewis rides in her open convertible after the crowning of "MISS WALKER".

The football season 1969

THE GREAT HIGH COMMAND: The coaches of the MIGHTY GREEN DRAGONS line up for inspection. They are the brain-twisters. Morris Taylor is line coach, Louis Anerson, End Coach, Mr. Booker, Head JV's Coach, Mr. Bowser, statistician, Mr. Williams, Lineman Coach, Mr. Cooper, Head Coach, Mr. Hopkins, JV's Line Coach, and Mr. Pierce Callaham, Backfield Coach.

FUNNY THINGS HAPPEN ANYWHERE!! Weldon Edwards, Robert Jones, and Landon Davis are being taped in preparation for the game. They seem to be so full of laughter. Coach Anderson (LuLu) and Coach Cooper (chief) evidently are tickling their feet while applying the tape.

PREPARATION IS HALF THE BATTLE Before each game much time is spent getting ready, so far as dress is concerned. Every piece of item donned should fit just right, so that a uniformed player is ready for battle. Mr. Hopkins supervises this preparation by Raymond Bowser, Cluverius Jenkins, and Marvin Tillman (sitting on floor). Two young prospective trainers look on.

Following instructions basic to training the Team gets ready for calisthenics before a hard evening of practice.

People, people everywhere at the classic

COACH HONORED: Coach "Stretch" Gardner (second from right) was honored during half-time activities at the Armstrong-Walker Classic. After many successful years as coach in basketball, football, golf, and track, as well as Chairman of the Department of Physical Education at Walker, Mr. Arthur L. Gardner stepped out of the coaching arena. He moved up to become Athletic Director and Administrative Assistant to the Principal. Mr. Gardner began an illustrious coaching career with the opening of our school in September, 1938. His positive influence on the hundreds of boys and girls who have gone through the halls at Walker is immeasurable. "Stretch" Gardner is shown holding presentations, flanked by sponsors George Jefferson and Perry Briggs (left) and Principal Parker on the right. Good Luck, Mr. Gardner and success in your new assignment.

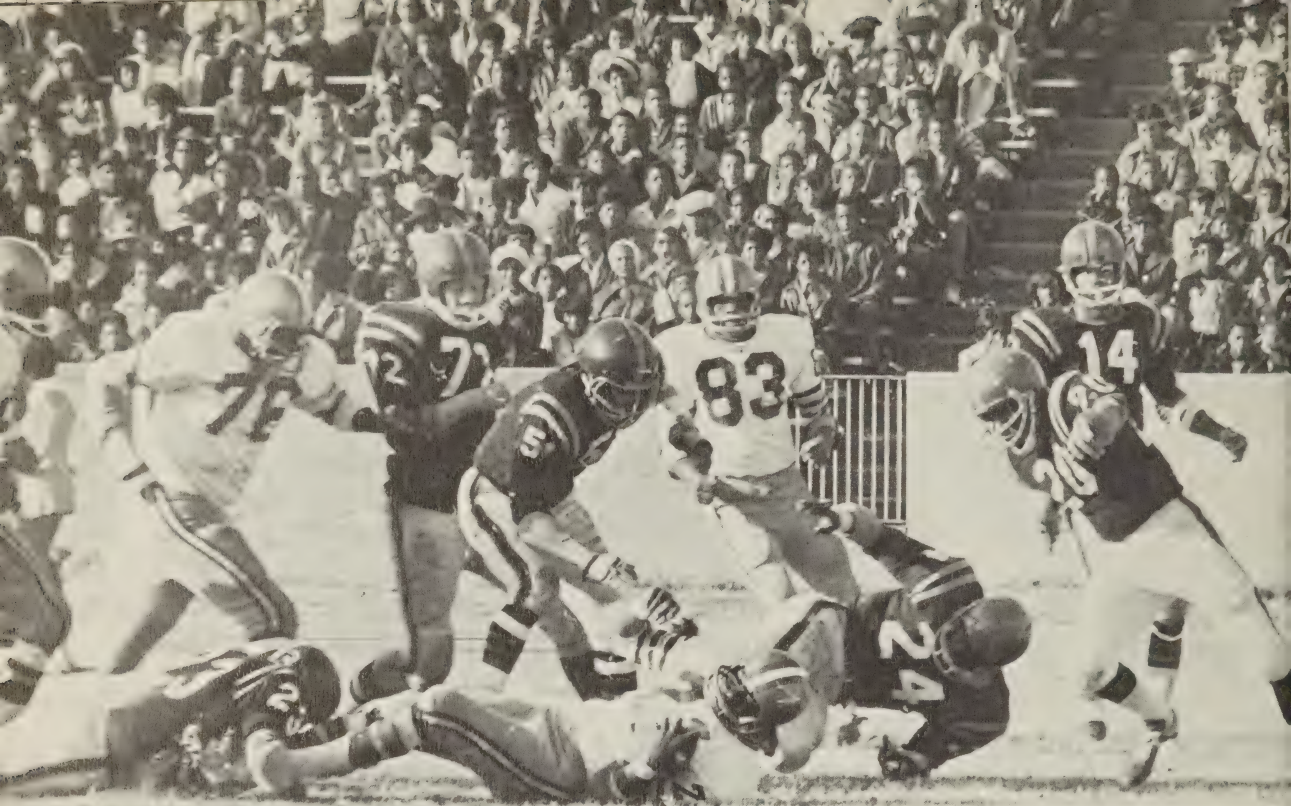

PEOPLE ON THE GO: The cheering team was on the go every minute of game time; singing, cheering, yelling, jumping, shouting, and dancing. The Dragons are people who love to GO. And it was really GO at the Armstrong-Walker Classic. Doing their number are: Deborah Bland, Belinda Hymes, Vickie Miles, Beatrice Archer, Shelia Jackson, Wanda Branch, Linda Booker, Barbara Tune, Gail Robinson, Carliss Terry, Peggie Shaw, and Carrie Reid.

THE BEGINNING OF A SCORE: Robert Jones (21) on an end-round sweep carried for seven yards, as McBride, Armstrong (24) chases him out of bounds. This play set up a touchdown three plays later.

WALKER SETS FAST PACE: The Classic was a fast scoring game, with the Mighty Green Dragons setting the pace. On this play Robert Jones gained big yardage with a key block by William Kimborough (70). Armstrong players 23 and 19 are Smith and Lewis, respectively.

SEASON RECORD — 5-0-2

THIS IS THE START TOWARD SOMETHING BIG. The Junior Varsity (JV'S) team is the beginning of football experiences for many of these youngsters. These are the experiences that are designed to lead up to the BIG TEAM. Yes, this is the freshman team. During the 1969 season the JV'S compiled a very impressive record. Individually, there were many standouts that seem to show great promises for the varsity team, come another school year. The JV'S pictured below are: Lloyd Coley, Marvin Gaines, David Churchwell, Leonard Adams, Roy Howard, Archie Claiborne, and Allen Stuckey.

Basketball season is on!

POSING IS EASY. These Green Dragons represented Walker in all VHL basketball contests. They freely admitted that it is much easier to pose for a quick picture than win a game. The players are: (Standing) Richard Birchett, Preston Hillard, Jonathan Tinsley, Eugene Thomas, Richard Jones, Jerome Ross, Ralph Brown, Charles Fowler, Ricky Cooper, Victor Herbert, Andrew Miles, and Coach Callaham. Also, (Kneeling) Ronald Price, John Smith, Murray Wood, and Kenneth Meritt.

A Dragon scores again! The shot was made easy by out maneuvering Cardozo players.

ANXIOUS MOMENTS. Two points down can cause unbearable tension on the bench. Eugene Thomas, Ronald Price and Charles Fowler show that tension.

A Jayem player steals the ball and waits to shoot. Ralph Brown and Richard Jones guard against an easy shot.

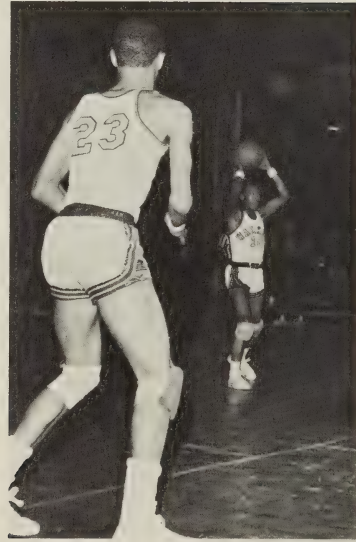

Ralph Brown takes dead aim for the basket as Jonathan Tinsley and Charles Fowler get into position for rebound.

JV's make good start

THE BEGINNING OF SOMETHING BIG: These are the JV'S at the beginning of what would be a busy and successful season: Delbert Montague, Leon Wright, Daniel Jones, George Johnson, Charles Harrington, John Minot, Willis Harrison, William Thornton, George Pleasant, and Trainer Alonzo Hunter.

THE FIRST GAME OF THE SEASON. The picture below shows action during the Walker-Cardozo game. Of course Walker won!

GIRLS' SPORTS TAKES ON NEW MEANING

Basketball is one of several sports that have taken on a new meaning to girls. This year marks the beginning of intramural sports among girls, according to rules setup by the Virginia High School League

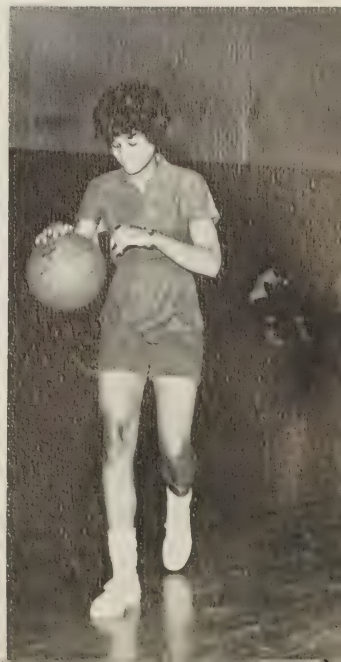

JV's, the Jumping group, ready to cheer for all sports events. They are: Marie Tune, Portia, Harris, Julie Johnson, and Belinda Bailey.

GIRLS LEARN BASKETBALL

FUNDAMENTALS: Even, girls, by now, know that basketball requires much practice and drills. Enola Palmer tries her hand at dribbling, a basic fundamental.

Girls Practice Before A Game: Maria Randall tries a practice shot, while Enola Palmer and Fannie Jones look on.

We remember the years that passed, but none were as gallant or challenging as our senior year, "70". Simultaneous with our initiation into a more qualified generation, as SENIORS, were attempts to bring about changes for this New Day as a "PEOPLE'S society." Our sacrifices have blazed trails for our successors. The frustrations and anxieties begin to pay off when that last night of study is over. Those throbbings melodies in our hearts for that long awaited march become a class song. But the year dwindles away like a candle. And at the end of this candle is a new wick to light, signaling an even bigger and more challenging era.

'70 class sponsors make plans

BIG PEOPLE GET TOGETHER

The Senior Class Sponsoring Committee, with Miss Ruth E. Richardson as chairman, aid and assist in offering guidance to graduating seniors in regards to activities and problems related to graduation. They, also, recommend policies and procedures for commencement activities. They are: (standing) Carlyle Segar, Miss Ruth Richardson, Howard Hopkins, Miss Delores Nutall and Louis Anderson. (seated) Mrs. Helen Brown, Mrs. Mary Keyes, Mrs. Aliceann Fleming, Mrs. Carol Bolden, and Mrs. Audrey Gaines. Also Mrs. Joyce Salley, A. L. Taylor and Mrs. Maxine Black. Members of the committee not shown: George Bowser, Pierce Callahan, Miss Delores Lowrance, Mrs. Viola Norrell and Mrs. Patricia Taylor.

Sponsors are active people

Miss Ruth E. Richardson as Chairman of the '70 Class Sponsors Committee, is an ardent and dedicated worker with students and teachers in interest of senior class activities. She sets high standards and challenging demands.

Lester V. Hill, yearbook advisor. Mr. Hill is a tireless worker and peculiar about yearbook details. For several years, now, Walker's yearbook has placed First Place in national competition. The photo at right shows Mr. Hill attending a yearbook clinic and workshop sponsored by yearbook publishers.

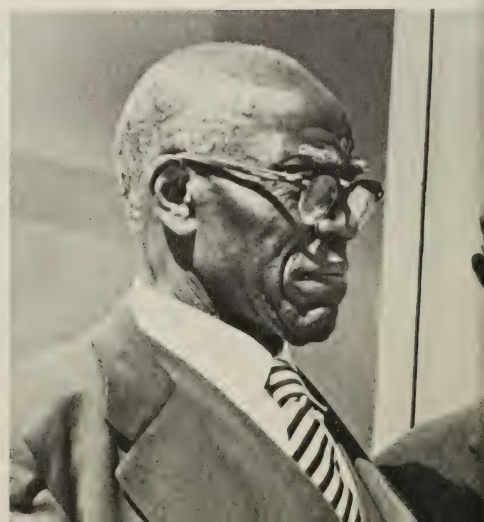

OFFICERS OF SENIOR CLASS '70

Geraldine Berry, President; Christopher Chester, Vice President; Denise Freeman, Financial Secretary; Joanne Lester, Corresponding Secretary; Jean Graves, Treasurer; LuWalker Blount, Chaplain; Delores Lacy, Recording Secretary.

Dr. Johnson Installation Speaker — Dr. Roger H. Johnson was one of the most respected teachers to teach at Walker. He founded the VOICE, our school paper, and for a number of years was chief sponsor of the project. He, now retired, was a lover of young people, and a dedicated Math Teacher.

Dr. Johnson installs CLASS '70 officers: Dr. R. H. Johnson, one of our beloved retired Walker teachers, in his installation message, challenged the class officers to high standards and marks of excellence. Dr. Johnson taught math at Walker. Officers: (Of '70) President, Geraldine Berry; V. President, Christopher Chester; Corresponding Sec., Joanne Lester; Financial Sec., Denise Freeman; Recording Sec., Delores Lacy; Treasurer, Jean Graves; Chaplain, Lu Walker Blount; and Parliamentarian, Ronald Jones.

PEOPLE MUST EAT: So teachers take time for lunch. Mrs. Muriel Fane, Mrs. Sarah Sartain, Mr. Parker, Mrs. Johnny Boyd, and Mrs. Ruth Taylor enjoy their noonday meal in the Teachers' Dining room.

Signs and symbols with meanings to learn
Issues to face like PEOPLE must.
Goals are set, the challenge is on
To meet the problems, for PEOPLE must.
Like People of today we strive and learn
New ways; old trails that are blazed.
We sense and feel the air around
The struggle PEOPLE endure.
Yet, when all is still and calm sets in
Hope abounds, PEOPLE shout
A joyous chant

JUNIORS! JUNIORS!

Now, Seniors soon.

JUNIOR CLASS ORGANIZED. As a result of a well-planned election, among juniors, the class selected officers for the 1971 graduating class. The newly elected officers immediately called a meeting to plan a program of action for the class. Indications seem to predict an active year for the class. The officers as pictured are: Goldie Goode, Treasurer; Reginald Dance; Wanda Branch, Vice President; Jerome Ross, President; and Constance Randolph, Secretary.

Juniors are active people

JUNIORS MAKE HONOR ROLL: The photographer was lucky to catch these many juniors together. Usually they are all over the place. This group was caught going to a meeting during Activity period. These juniors are all Honor Roll Students. They are: Camilla Easely, Thomas Brown, Rosalind Booker, Wanda Shelton, Lonell James, Jackie Seaton, Jerome Ross, Maurice Henderson, Michael Hall and Audrey Ford.

It takes all Kinds of People
Working in all sorts of jobs
Earning all Kinds of Money
To Keep a community alive and growing,

It takes People with all kinds abilities
Contributing in all sorts of ways,
With appreciations and willingness
To inspire and challenge
People

These are the Kind of People
Who support the inspirations of each new set of People
In an economic way. •

TO CHALLENGE THE CHALLENGING YOUTH AND THE CHANGING TIMES TODAY:

- A distinguished faculty of various ethnic backgrounds, prepared in the finest Universities of the Americas, Asia and Europe.
- A cosmopolitan student body of about 1300, representing about 32 states and several foreign countries.
- A $90,000 electronic Learning Center, besides the over 6 1/2 million dollars expansion mentioned above.
- A member of a consortium with Concordia College (Moorhead, Minn.), University of Virginia, and the Virginia Consortium for Asian Studies, besides a Junior Year Abroad program.
- A member of the University Center in Virginia, Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Association of American Colleges, American Council on Education, Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, etc.
- A variety of courses of instruction in the Divisions of Humanities, Social Science, Education, Natural Science and Mathematics with a major in over 25 different areas.
- A liberal program of Student Aid that includes Scholarships, Grants, Work, and Loans.
- A MINIMUM COST FOR A MAXIMUM EDUCATION!

People — in review

The pages of this book will soon become history. The last page closes the curtain on a year that was full of exciting events. The senior high school year is the most rememberable year of high school life. The 1969-70 school year began on a high note and ended in a blaze of glory. To mention all of the happenings of the year would be impossible. At any rate, people would differ about which were the most outstanding events. But all will agree that the events listed below are the most impressive; (1) Senior Class play, March 26, 1970; (2) Senior Prom, June 3, 1970; (3) Bacculaureate, June 7, 1970; (4) Class Night, June 8, 1970; (5) Commencement, June 13, 1970. After each succeeding event the curtain draws a little closer, until the last major event, Commencement. And, then, the curtain is fully closed and a new people emerge.

The planning and final publishing of this book was an enormous task. It required the cooperative efforts of hundreds of People. The Editorial staff is aware that a yearbook is primarily photojournalistic reporting in such a way that the end product will be a permanent record-memory book.

Luckily, the staff was excitingly happy about the selection of the theme for the book — PEOPLE. The theme is the focal point around which the planning, the design, the layout, the contents, arrangement and book materials are woven.

The exciting Sixties are over, but the events involving the peoples of all nations are still impressive and they carry over into the Seventies. People involvement in what they considered the fundamentals of living threatened, in too many instances, to tear asunder time proven institutions. It was a decade when the young sought to be heard. It was a time of youth involvement in issues of realities. It was with such a backdrop that planning of this book was first begun.

In the introduction of the book attempts are made to set the tone for that which follows. In this section photographs were carefully selected that would graphically present students involved in all phases of high school life.

High school life is rich in episodes, with varying experiences. The richness of high school days is often expressed in the throbs and thrills of the teaching staff. Teachers are real live PEOPLE; people who bear the burden of translating that which seems unmeaningful into that which is relevant. So by the use of photography the "soul of the people speaks out". Hence, in order to capture the soul of the people who are so committed to the problems of young people, wide use of informals of teachers are used.

In the section of the book dealing with academic activities, it is the "same story" but in a new setting. Here, the spirit that grips the late Sixties is the guiding force. All youth are not protestors nor are they revolutionaries. The feeling of the staff is that the largest segment of young people is concerned with issues that promise progress and advancements.

Consequently, efforts are made to record youth engaged in and concerned with activities of scholastic, social, and civic learning situations. The staff takes the position that photographs can be used to record evidences of a people's desire for higher levels of achievements.

The senior section of the book was planned with joy and delight. It is intended that the layout reflect simplicity, yet at the same time express feelings of accomplishments. To seniors, the traditional cap and gown is symbolic of that which is dignity, stateliness, refinements and achievements. Seniors would have it no other way.

The photographs of juniors are less formal. Juniors are yet hopeful of that day that shall represent the culmination of striving and study as high school people.

The athletic section of the book is covered in a way so as to convey the range of and enthusiasm for these types of activities at Walker High School. The aim is not to overpower the book with sports, but to impress the reader with the importance of worthwhile lessons that school sports seek to teach.

With a deep sense of gratitude, names of persons and firms in the community are listed. These are the PEOPLE who through their public spirit indicate their concern for our youth and the problems of youth. These are the PEOPLE who are concerned about the aspirations and hope of all People. This, then, is the message that this book seeks to convey.

It is, indeed, the hope of the staff that this yearbook shall not only serve as a memory book, but it shall also inspire PEOPLE to higher levels of learning and achievements.

Young people shall rise up
And people will listen,
New people shall speak
And the world must act.

WALKER ALMA MATER

Maggie Walker, Alma Mater,
We would wreath thy wall with praise
We would carol adoration
To thy name for endless days.

II

Tho in sunshine or in shadows,
Bright with starlight, dark with storm,
Here within thy cloister
You would shield us from all harm.

III

Therefore, onward, upward lead us
With your kind unerring hand,
And forever true, you'd have us
To thee, God and nature land.

Words and music: Willie Thomas Jones
